She told April that one day all of the sodas and candy bars would catch up to her. When it happened, and yes, it happened. April stood shell-shocked in front of the bathroom mirror staring at her larger than life reflection. Blaming a happy marriage, genes and the curse of her mother, April set out on a journey to improve her self-image. She tried everything from red and green highlights in her hair to piercings and acrylic nails, but still found the fat suit to be all consuming. Who s the Girl in the Fat Suit is a true story of one woman s journey from a size four to a size twelve-ish. April struggled with self-acceptance and finally found her answer to weight loss, but not without failing and falling numerous times. This memoir is written in a blog-like style complete with quick and easy to read chapters. If you have ever stood in front of a full-length mirror and asked, Really? You may enjoy April s latest release: Who s the Girl in the Fat Suit.
