

More Desired Than Our Own Salvation: The Roots of Christian Zionism (Hardback)

By Pastor and Area Program Director for the Middle East North Africa Robert O Smith

Oxford University Press Inc, United States, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 238 x 156 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Millions of American Christians see U.S. support for the State of Israel as a God-ordained responsibility. Millions more see the special relationship between the two countries as a bond that should never be challenged, much less broken. Robert O. Smith provides an in-depth look at the English Protestant tradition of Judeo-centric prophecy interpretation at the heart of this popular affinity. In 2006, John Hagee founded Christians United for Israel. Several high-level policymakers, both Christians and Jews, flocked to endorse the effort. Soon, however, questions rose about apparently anti-Catholic and anti-Islamic ideas contained in Hagee's preaching and writing. More Desired Than Our Own Salvation explores the content of Christian Zionist attitudes, their resonance in popular American culture, and the history of the ideas that have contributed to present realities. After discussing polling data and exploring how Black Protestant views clarify general American attitudes, Smith revisits sixteenth- and seventeenth-century Protestant interpretations of scripture and history. The Pope and the Turk figured significantly, identified by both Luther and Calvin as the two heads of the Antichrist. Protestant exiles from England carried...
