

A Comma in a Sentence: Extraordinary Change in an Ordinary Family Over Six Generations

By R. Gopalakrishnan

Rupa Publications India Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, India. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. R. Gopalakrishnan recounts the story of the last century in India through the story of his own family, beginning with his great-great-grandfather, Ranganathan. A small-time landowner, Ranganathan's business changed as India changed, evolving with the social and cultural change that followed the decades after the badly mismanaged great Madras famine which Ooshi, the authors great grandfather, used for his benefit to wean a few more rupees out of his paddy. The landscape changed further and by the time of Gopalan, the authors grandfather, modern school education became a sought luxury, one that Gopalan struggled to provide his children. Rajam, Gopalakrishnan's father, pioneered the move to the cities and they were witness to India's movement from the modest villages to the sprawling cities that she boasts today. Retold in a lucid style, this book helps readers see how India itself has grown through the growth of Gopalakrishnan's family. Printed Pages: 184.
