PROFITABLE OFFICE SPECIALTIES

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 100 pages. Original publisher: Washington : U. S. G. P. O. : For sale by the Supt. of Docs. , U. S. G. P. O. , 2004. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)54367611 Excerpt: . . . 11 I also want to compliment the Ranking Member on his leadership and commitment to the same principles. And I do believe that we have the capacity to be a positive oversight element in the construction and execution of these markets. Last, I have a longer statement for the record that I will include. I, too, am one that respects the Presidents choice with regard to the individual selected for the SEC. Not only did he visit with me last week, but also I have had more than ample opportunity in my own personal experience to spend time with Mr. Donaldson. I re-spect his vast knowledge, character, independence, and ability with regard to the issues that the SEC will have to deal with. I want my colleagues to know that I both respect him as an individual and also I think he can bring to the SEC his leadership. The agenda is an enormous one, and the challenges of restoring confidence and clarity to the marketplaces sense of integrity, those hurdles are very high. And so, the challenges, even for an innovator and an honorable person who has this experience, I think, are going to be quite serious. The first place we start, in my view, is making sure that this Public Accounting Oversight Board is independently staffed and resourced. I concur entirely with Senator Enzi that we need to make sure that FASB is in that same position, gets the resources to make sure that it is representing investor interests as opposed to...
