The arguments and calculations, which seemed so conclusive, when only seen on paper, have now been subjected to a trial-process, which must satisfy even those over-cautious minds that believe nothing they do not see. Rowland Hill s System of Postage is now as distinct a subject of study and of history, as Professor Morse s System of Electro-Magnetic Telegraphs; and the principles and rules of operation are as necessary to be, understood, in order to successful application in practice. The distance, greater or less, which a letter is carried, is matter of small consequence. Ten letters carried a hundred miles may...
